MASSIE the answer of the deft by their guardian ad litem (not named) to proof by producing the bill thereto he will be ready to prove and verify whereupon he humbly prays. (undated)

Answer by Nathaniel Massie, Nancy Massie, Richard Kidder Massie and Henry Massie, heirs of Nathaniel Massie, dec'd. Geo. Collings their guardien, date of filing, 19 August 1825.

WAMSLEY Orator William Wamsley, sayeth that 23 August 1804
VS BAIRD John Beasley now dec'd but then of this county conveyed to orator a certain tract on East Fork of Scioto Brush Creek by general warranty. That after several meetings the purchaser did in consideration of $64 contracted, through a writing purported to be a patent under signature of Thomas Jefferson, Pres of the United States, and which he (Beasley) said appropriated the land aforesaid and that he had a full and perfect title to the same. Orator further sayeth that after contract had been executed your orator discovered that the said John had deceived him; that the sd John had no title either in law or equity that there was no patent or entry of sd John appropriating the same, and that your orator further showeth unto your Honor that after making discovery he visited the aforesaid John and acquainted him thereunto. He admitted the same to be true and that it was so known to him at the time of the contract aforesaid and promised your orator faithfully that he would perfect the title to your orator by making an entry and survey and procuring a patent thereto. And your orator frequently thereafter asked him so to do but without fulfilling his promise said John departed this life leaving Eliza Beasley, who has intermarried with Horatio Bruce, Sally Beasley, who Beasley, who has since intermarried with Benjamin Bedford, John C. Beasley, Thomas L. Beasley, his heirs and legal representatives all of whom your orator prays may be made defendants to this his bill of complaint and that the sd defendant be required to pay from the estate the amount of the original purchase with interest from the date it was paid. D.P. Wilkins

BEASLEY Before me, Justice of peace in and for the county
VS MASSIE of Adams, Ralph M. Voorhees and being duly sworn saying that the annexed advertisement, Beasley vs Massie heirs, was inserted in the Village Register, a paper published in West Union, for period of nine weeks successively before the April Term of 1825. 26 March, Ralph McClure, J.P.
Newspaper item: Benjamin Beasley, complt; Nathaniel Massie, deft.

On motion of the complaintant by his counsel and it appearing to the court that the defendants are not inhabitants of this state, it is ordered that they appear here on the first day of our next court term and answer the bill of complaint or it will be taken pro confesso, and the matter thereof decreed accordingly, and it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Village Register, a paper printed in West Union, nine weeks consecutively before the next term of this court. Attest: Jos. Darlinton West Union, 18 January 1825.

To the court of Adams County, Common Pleas in chancery sitting: Your orator Benjamin Beasley humbly complaining sheweth to your honors that in the year 1790 or 1791 a certain Nathaniel Massie, being desirous of making a settlement in a town that he had then lately laid off and established on the bank of the Ohio River in the Northwest Territory of the United States (now State of Ohio) when such settlement could not with safety be made but by a considerable number of men, in consequence of the frequent inroads of hostile Indians, the country roundabout (in which sd Massie had many tracts of land for sale) being a wilderness he offered to give an in-lot and an out lot in the said town which he called Manchester and also 100 acres of land in the vicinity of the sd town to each and every man who would engage with him to settle and reside in the sd town. Your orator and about 24 or 25 others engaged with the sd Massie, and he the sd Massie professed an obligation of an in-lot and out lot and 100 acres of land. That your orator then supposed 100 acres but which he now believes contains less than that quantity and which is a part of any entry #2723 made in the name of the sd Massie for 1400 acres but 400 of them having been withdrawn leaving an entry for 1000 acres principally on what is called Gift Ridge., The tract of land laid off for your orator (follows a description of the land-mentions land of Elijah Collins, James Nailor, John McCollum) That soon after the sd land was laid off for your orator by the sd Massie, possession was given by him to your orator who placed John Beasley, your orator's brother, in possession thereof and your orator by his tenants has been in possession ever since, making lasting and valuable improvements thereon. That the sd Nathaniel Massie departed this life intestate leaving 5 children his heirs and representatives, to wit: Elizabeth Massie (who has since intermarried with William L. Thompson) Nathaniel Massie, Richard Kidder Massie, Nancy Massie and Henry Massie, all of whom except Elizabeth are infants under 21 years of age. And all of whom as well as the said William L. Thompson your orator prays be made defendants in this case. Your orator further shows that the written contract between your orator and the other settlers aforesaid with sd Nathaniel Massie was an article of agreement executed by all parties. That the said Massie in his lifetime had not the possession and legal title to sd land and could not legally convey it to your orator and his representatives the defendants have not conveyed it to your orator the legal title and that the said defendants by decree of this Honorable Court may be compelled to convey to your orator the land surveyed and laid off for your orator. May it please your honor to grant your orator this writ of subpoena. F. Taylor, for complt.
